LONGICERA LONGEVITY GIVES BACK WHAT TIME AND LIFESTYLE CHOICES DIMINISH

- Powerful antioxidant compounds fight to support healthy cells and DNA including the naturally occurring C3G from Lonicera Caerulea.
- This dynamic nutrient blend offers support for a range of body functions including the cardiovascular and immune systems.
- For optimal health, effective removal of toxins and toxic build-up is key. Lonicera Longevity effectively and safely supports the liver in its role to filter toxins.
- Lonicera Longevity supports your body in optimizing the master antioxidant, glutathione, in not just one, but two different ways by delivering a patented, clinically proven ready-made form, and by supplying a specialized precursor mix.
